

The Casey Awards 2020

Created in tribute to June Callwood, The Casey Awards annually celebrate individuals and organizations across Canada that demonstrate leadership in social justice and commitment to HIV/AIDS. The inaugural recipient in 2008, and inspiration for the awards, was June Callwood, one of the founders of Casey House. The Casey Awards celebrate June's spirit of innovative leadership.

Nomination Outline

Casey House has an open call for nominations for the 2020 Casey Awards. Nominations are encouraged from the entire community and self-nominations are welcome.

Nominated individuals are reviewed by a committee representing Casey House board of directors, volunteers and staff as well as community representatives.

Casey Awards are presented in June at the Casey House AGM, which will be held this year on June 16, 2020.

Nomination deadline

April 24, 2020 at 5 p.m.

Categories

The Casey Award categories are:

- Leadership in HIV/AIDS or social justice
- Volunteer
- Corporate partner or foundation
- Philanthropist

Leadership in HIV/AIDS or social justice

To recognize Canadian individuals or organizations whose dedicated activism, volunteerism, leadership and compassion has made our world a better and more humane place.

Volunteer

Presented to an individual, couple or family in recognition of their exceptional volunteer service to the Casey House and/or the HIV/AIDS community.

Corporate partner or foundation

Presented to a corporation or corporate or private foundation or special-purpose philanthropic group that has demonstrated outstanding commitment through financial support Casey House and/or the HIV/AIDS community and through encouragement and motivation of others to take leadership roles in supporting stronger communities.

Philanthropist

In recognition of an individual or family who has demonstrated outstanding civic and philanthropic leadership through a proven record of exceptional generosity and financial support within the HIV/AIDS community. Winners will have motivated others to take leadership roles toward philanthropy in our community or at a broader provincial or national level.

Nomination Process

Nominations should include the name, address and contact information for both the nominee and the nominator. There should be a brief narrative description of the nominee's accomplishments and why they should be considered for The Casey Award. There should be a list of examples of the nominee's contributions to the community and up to three letters of support for the nomination.

Completed nominations can be submitted to heart@caseyhouse.ca with the subject line 'Casey Award nomination'.

The committee is not obligated to select four winners every year and may choose not to award in a category despite receiving a nomination.
